Learn how to lead your business with confidence and clarity in

Course for Presidents®

Course for Presidents helps business owners who want to lead with confidence, clarity, and intention by getting them out of the day-to-day and onboarding them to the DOC System, a proven, practical system for running a thriving business that's transformed thousands of businesses and lives.

What you'll experience

- Onboard to Aileron's DOC System of Professional Management.
- Step out of the day-to-day, assess the most critical components of your business, and envision a brighter future.
- Connect with and learn from fellow presidents who have faced similar challenges.
- Adopt an intentional mindset to take charge of your thoughts, business, and life.
- Harness the confidence and courage to implement professional management in your organization.
- Meet one-on-one with an Aileron Business Coach to maintain your momentum and move your business forward.
- Get back together with your cohort — a small group of like-minded business owners — three months after the workshop in a follow-up Peer Group to check in and reflect on what you've learned.

“I’m a skeptical person. I’ve been through a bazillion seminars. By the end of the Course for Presidents, I knew Aileron’s system was exactly what I needed to grow as a leader and to set our company up for our next season of growth.”

David Crnkovich, Owner of Quantifi Digital

What's included

This immersive two-day workshop takes place on Aileron's Campus and includes three months of Business Coaching where you can process what you learned and how to move forward.
